Her love for adventure always amazed her family and friends. She lived in Alaska and raced dog sleds; raced stock cars and ran in a 5K Desert race in Parker, AZ at the age of 64. Her favorite job in life was proprietor of a Christmas Tree Farm in Libby, MT and selling those trees to Sears and Roebuck.
